

State of South Carolina

Governor's Proclamation

WHEREAS, Reverend Limuer Myers, the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Albert Myers, husband of Thomasina M. Myers, and father of four children, is a native of Aiken County who has served the residents of the Palmetto State to bring about unity and harmony and has dedicated himself to the betterment of people everywhere; and

WHEREAS, Reverend Myers is committed to supporting the collective works of Carter G. Woodson and Dr. Robert Pritchard, which led to and promote the official recognition and acknowledgement of the many valuable contributions of Black Americans; and

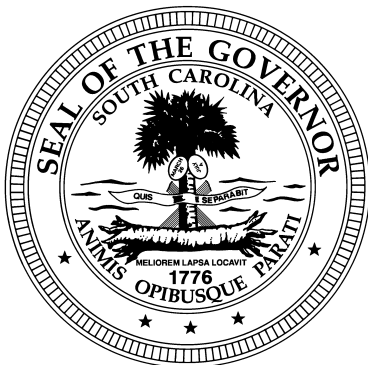

WHEREAS, a well-respected resident of our state, Reverend Limuer Myers gives of himself to help improve the lives of others while advocating for human and civil rights for all people; and

WHEREAS, Reverend Myers, licensed as a minister in January 1980, is Pastor of the Old Macedonia Baptist Church in North Augusta and is the former Pastor of four other churches in the Palmetto State.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Mark Sanford, Governor of the Great State of South Carolina, do hereby proclaim February 12, 2005, as

REVEREND LIMUER MYERS DAY

throughout the state and encourage all South Carolinians to join in honoring his efforts to uphold our country's values of justice and freedom and to preserve the history and culture of African Americans.

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Mark Sanford".

MARK SANFORD
GOVERNOR
STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA